A Day in the Park

Today is a holiday, so May does not go to school. It is Sunny and breezy. Therefore May wants to go to the park with mum in the morning. She feels excited and great.

May plays on a swing. Then, May's mother meets her friend Mrs Li. May's mother and Mrs Li talk happily. And then, May sees a stray dog outside the park. She wants to stroke the dog so she follows it. But she does not tell her mum.

Later May's mother turns back her head. She doesn't see May! She tries to walk around to find her but she cannot see May. She feels scared and worried.

After that, she calls Mrs Li. Mrs Li comes to help May's mother. Suddenly, they go and see what happens. They see a stray dog biting May! May is scared and painful, so Mrs Li calls 999 and the ambulance comes. The staff from SPCA catches the dog and May goes to the hospital. May's mother learns that she needs to look after May more carefully.
