A Picnic

The Chan family is going on a picnic day. Before the picnic, Mrs Chan puts the sandwiches and water in a bag. Tom and Mary wash the fruit. They like the fruit very much. The Chan family are healthy and strong. The family is ready for the picnic.

They leave home and go to Sai Kung Country Park. They go there by minibus. The weather is good and they feel wonderful. They like it very much.

At the picnic site, the Chan family sit on the tablecloth. Its colours are red, yellow, blue and green. The children think it is colourful. They have sandwiches, apples and oranges. They also have some water. But there is a wild dog, it is barking angrily.

The children are confused because they do not think Sai Kung Country Park would have wild dogs. Mr. Chan then takes a twig to scare the dog away. Lastly, they can really enjoy the picnic.
