A Picnic

Today is a holiday. Sam and his parents go hiking in Shing Mun Country Park. The weather is sunny and hot. They go there by bus. They can see a lot of beautiful butterflies, some birds and ants. They feel excited.

When Sam's parents walk away, he sees a nest. It is in the tree. Then he climbs up the tree. There is an egg in the nest. He wants to touch the egg.

Suddenly, Mother Crow flies to the tree. She is angry. She attacks Sam with her sharp claws. Sam shouts loudly for help. Mother Crow attacks him because she wants to protect the egg. Next Sam falls down and gets hurt.

Sam's parents take him to the hospital quickly. He learns a lesson. He learns not to touch the wild animals' eggs. He also learns that he must not walk away from his parents when he goes outside.
