

Name: Helen (15)

Class: 3E

A Day in the Park

This is a holiday today. It is sunny. May goes to the park with her mum. She feels excited.

Then she walks to the swing and plays with it. Her mother meets her friend, Mrs Lam. They are chatting happily. When May's mum is talking, May goes to the washroom. However, May doesn't tell her mum where she goes.

Suddenly, May's mother turns back her head but she cannot find her daughter. She feels scared so she cries. She tries very hard to find her daughter but still can't find May.

After that, May's mother dials 999. A policeman comes to help her. Finally, May appears. She feels sorry. She learns that she should tell her Mum where she goes.