A Day in the Park

There is a school holiday today. It is sunny. May goes to the park to play with her mum. She feels excited and happy.

Then she walks to the park and plays on the swing. Her mum meets her friend. They are talking. May wants to go to the washroom but she doesn't tell her mum where she goes.

Suddenly, May's mother turns back her head but she doesn't see May. May is in the washroom. Her mum tries to look for May. She feels scared and wants to cry.

After that, May's mum dials 999. A policeman comes to help her. She can find May. She feels very sorry to mum. May learns that if she wants to go to somewhere else, she should tell her family first.
