Dear Rachel,

How are you? During the Christmas holidays, I went on a trip in Japan with my family. When we arrived, we were hungry so we went to a traditional Japanese restaurant. I was very surprised because we needed to sit on the floor while having our meal! It was my first time so I thought it was very special. We also ordered some traditional Japanese food like sushi, udon noodles and ramen. I ate two bowls of ramen by myself because they were very scrumptious. My mum and dad thought the sushi was the best but I didn't think so. I thought the ramen was the best. After a while, all of us were full. If you have time, go to this restaurant and eat the ramen. You will love it very soon.

On the second day of our trip, I went to the Hello Kitty Land with my parents. When I entered the Hello Kitty Land, I thought it was the dream land for all the girls. It was very colourful so I took a selfie with my family. First, we watched a show in the theatre. The show was about Hello Kitty who wanted to make friends with the other cartoon characters but the other characters thought Hello Kitty was not special so Hello Kitty learned magic and went on many adventures. The show was funny so my family and I laughed loudly. After the show, I took a photo with Hello Kitty. She was very pretty. Do you want to have a look of the photo? Maybe I will send it to you later. Then, we were hungry because we hadn't eaten our meal yet. So we went to a restaurant to have our lunch. I ordered a Hello Kitty set. The set had a Hello Kitty shaped pancake, some biscuits and a bottle of juice. It was so delicious. I loved it very much. After that, we went to the game city. There were a lot of exciting games. I wanted to play all of them. I saw a game about riding on the lovely cartoon characters. I wanted to play this game but there was a long queue so I was eating some snacks while lining up at the queue. When I was riding on it, my dad took some photos of me. The ride was very exciting. I also played other games in the games city. Finally, we left the Hello Kitty Land. I told my parents I won't forget that place and I hope I will go there again.

On the third day of our trip, we went to a zoo called Ueno Zoo. It was very big! First, we went to see the pandas. They were very famous in Japan. They were white and black and had big ears. They were lovely so many tourists love them. Have you ever seen pandas? Then, we had a walk in a forest. When I looked up, I shouted, 'Dad! Mum! There is a beehive in the tree. Let's run!' My dad laughed loudly and said, 'It's not a beehive. It's a bird's nest.' Phew! It was not a beehive but I was very embarrassed. I hope you will not laugh at me. Finally, we left the zoo at five o'clock. If you visit the zoo, you can learn more about animals and how to protect them.

On the last day of our trip, we went to an outlet. The things there were very cheap. I bought a lot of things. I bought some souvenirs for my friends, some snacks, some beautiful clothes..... Of course one of the souvenirs was yours. It was a key ring. I chose a pink key ring for you because I thought it was your favourite colour. When we went back to our hotel, we packed our luggage. I couldn't zip my luggage bag because I put too many things in it so I put some of my things in a plastic bag. At last, we went to the airport and left Japan. It was the most memorable trip ever. My parents promised to take me to visit another country in the next holidays. Do you want to come with us?

Love,
Wendy
