A Letter to My Friend

Dear Karen,

I want to share what happened to me yesterday.

Jack called me yesterday morning. Jack wanted to ask me to go to Wan Chai. We went to Hong Kong Book Fair in Wan Chai. I was very excited. It was because I had never been there before and the books were very cheap there.

We went to Wan Chai by bus. When we were on the bus, we didn't have a seat and it was extremely hot on the bus because the air-conditioning system broke down. I felt very dizzy so I took out a fan. The passengers were hot too.

After that, I still felt hot, I almost fell on the floor so I took the fan out again to cool myself down. Jack felt very worried about me but he was very hot too so he took out a fan too.

Then, we felt better so we went to the book fair. I felt very happy because I could still buy some books there.

Write soon.

Love,
Aaron
